Chairman's Message

Welcome to the annual B'Mesila Naaleh event. I am delighted to take this opportunity to share with our friends and supporters the nachas of another year of unprecedented growth, both in Eretz Yisrael and abroad. Over the past year, our activities in Eretz Yisrael and overseas have dramatically expanded. This year, we launched our new DIY kit, enabling many more people to benefit from the Mesila approach. This Do-It-Yourself kit promises to be a real game-changer be"H. We also opened our first course for business coaches in Eretz Yisrael – an historic step that should dramatically step up our ability to put entrepreneurs on the track to success.

This is the first year that we have coached hundreds of families abroad. Each coaching process was closely supervised and articulately documented with professional summaries of every meeting. The results were often quite remarkable. After years of chairing Mesila, I still cannot fail to be amazed by the life-changing experiences that our clients undergo, sometimes within only a few sessions. As might be expected, along with unprecedented growth, come unprecedented challenges, primarily financial ones. Baruch Hashem, we've come a long way in overcoming these challenges, although we are not there yet.

The needs are huge, and strengthening of our infrastructure to address the needs is crucial. With the support of the Mesila family, however, I have no doubt that we will be"H emerge stronger and in an even better position to realize our potential and fulfill our role: serving Klal Yisrael and bringing about a healthier and better future for our target population. I'd like to thank this morning's honorable hosts, Reb Joseph and Mrs. Ruthie Pearlman, who have been close with members of my family for over sixty years and have a special place in their heart for the Mesila mission.

I also want to thank Sarah Malka Eisen for all she has done for Mesila, and specifically for helping to set up our new Board of Directors – a group of respected and dedicated askanim with vast experience and professional knowledge that we hope will help bring Mesila to the next level. I'm grateful to the Directors for generously contributing their time and efforts to the cause. Special mention goes to Duvid Reichmann for his unflinching dedication and to Baruch Lubinsky for his invaluable guidance.

I feel that we are better poised than ever before to accelerate our efforts and surge forward, be"H. At this opportunity, I wish to thank Shai Climer, our COO, and all our staff and devoted supporters for helping us get to where we are and look forward to another successful and fruitful year together, iy"H.
